The Song Anchor for Sabbath School and Praise Service is known as the first Seventh-day Adventist Sabbath School songbook. Compiled in the late 1800's, it was used extensively in Sabbath School congregations across the country for years. This is a facsimile reprint of the second edition. Author James Edson White was the second son of James and Ellen White. Born into a world of printing, Edson began his career at the age of 15 working at the Review and Herald Publishing Plant in Battle Creek, where he mastered the printing trade. After marrying Emma McDearmon, Edson worked extensively with his brother-in-law, Frank Belden, on compiling and composing hymns for church. Both Edson and Frank were musicians and showed talent as composers. Their work eventually led to the General Conference commissioning Edson's Company, J. E. White Publishing Company, to create a hymnal for church service. Their work was later published as the original SDA Hymnal known as Hymns and Tunes. Some of the songs in the book include the following: Above the Clouds Always be on Time A Cheerful Song Always Speak the Truth Blessing by the Way Behold, He Cometh Coming By and By Come to Jesus Evening Prayer Father, now the Day is Past God Our Commander Gone to the Grave Heirs of an Immortal Crown Hark! Hark! My Soul Infant Praises Joyful Greetings Little Children Like refreshing Showers Never Yield O come, Let us Sing Pull for the Shore Sing Praises Sabbath Welcome The Song Anchor There is a Gate that Standa Ajar We Shall Sing White Robes

In recent years, millions of people have joined churches such as the Seventh-day Adventist which prosper enormously in different parts of the world. The Road to Clarity is one of the first ethnographic in-depth studies of this phenomenon. It is a vivid account based on almost two years of participation in ordinary church members' daily religious and non-religious lives. The book offers a fascinating inquiry into the nature of long-term commitment to Adventism among rural people in Madagascar. Eva Keller argues that the key attraction of the church lies in the excitement of study, argument and intellectual exploration. This is a novel approach which challenges utilitarian and cultural particularist explanations of the success of this kind of Christianity.

"Using primary sources in connection with secondary works, the author, Dr. Floyd Greenleaf, narrates the beginnings of the Adventist presence in the powerful continent of South America, as well as its later development the beginning of the twenty-first century." --Back cover.

Graduates are looking for a challenge. Filled with superb stories that are inspiring, funny, even sad, this passionate book issues such a challenge. Master-communicator Tony Campolo wants every young Christian to know, "You Can Make a Difference." In four hard-hitting, humorous presentations he galvanizes high school and college students to live lives of total commitment to Christ, to move beyond warm fuzzies and good intentions, and to set a course for a lifetime of spiritual adventure. The perfect gift for any Christian who is finishing school.
